UCI Statistics: State of the Department 2023

Dan Gillen
Chancellor's Professor, Chair
Statistics Dept., UC Irvine

4 p.m., Thursday, September 28, 2023
6011 Donald Bren Hall

Welcome back for the 2023-24 academic year! During this seminar I will highlight department, faculty, and student achievements from our past year and welcome our new colleagues. We will also announce student award winners within the department. Plans for the coming year will be outlined and important department initiatives and dates will be provided. I look forward to welcoming everyone back.
